ART HOWELL Police Chief, Racine Police Department

Art Howell has served the citizens of the Racine Community for the past 33 years, holding numerous positions during his tenure including; gang unit officer, traffic investigator, detective, and public information officer. In 2008, Howell was transferred to the Investigative Division in his new rank as Deputy Chief of Police.

Chief Howell is a graduate of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, VA. He also holds his Master of Science in Management from the College of Business and Management from Cardinal Stritch University.

Howell is active in the Racine community, serving the United Way of Racine County, the Homeless Leadership and Assistance Organization, the Siena Catholic Schools of Racine, Racine Community Foundation, the YMCA, the Wheaton-Ascension Foundation, and the First Choice Pre-Apprenticeship Training Program.

Howell and his wife, April, have two children. Both are educators within the Racine Unified School District. Howell is also an active member of the Greater Mt. Eagle Baptist Church in Racine, Wisconsin.

CHAD SEVERSON President & CEO, InSinkErator

After achieving success at various Emerson Electric Co business units, including most recently as President of Emerson Tool Co., Chad Severson was appointed President of InSinkErator in 2016. Chad has more than 25 years of management, sales, marketing and product development experience in industrial and equipment manufacturers and consumer companies. Chad earned his BS in Management from the United States Air Force Academy and holds an MBA from Ohio State University.

Chad is passionate about people and helping his teams succeed by leading with a clearly aligned, articulated strategy. Chad takes finding new ways to delight customers and exceed their expectations personally.

In the community, Chad serves on the Leadership table of Higher Expectation of Racine County, the campaign cabinet of United Way of Racine and is a member of the Corporate Board of Milwaukee School of Engineering.

He and his wife, Laura, have three children.

THREE HARBORS COUNCIL, BSA

Three Harbors Council serves more than 20,000 youth in Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, Venturing and other Scouting programs in the southeastern Wisconsin counties of Kenosha, Milwaukee and Racine.

The Boy Scouts of America helps future leaders of this country "Build an Adventure" by combining educational activities and lifelong values with fun. Scouting provides unique, life-changing experiences you can't get anywhere else.

Learning for Life is a program that offers lifelong values to young people through partnerships with 40 schools and organizations, serving more than 12,000 youth throughout southeastern Wisconsin. Learning for Life helps youth develop social and life skills, assists in character development and helps young people formulate positive personal values.
