Welcome to the fun and excitement of Cub Scouting… Where character counts & adventure is waiting

As a parent, you want your child to grow up to be a self-reliant, dependable and caring individual. But does Cub Scouting really improve a kid’s character? According to research conducted at Tufts University, the answer is YES!

The research studied 4,000 kids, some who are in Scouting and some who are not. The findings show that Scouting…

1. Includes sustained, positive adult-youth relations with caring and supportive adults
2. Promotes development of life skills through program activities
3. Provides leadership opportunities

SERVING TODAY’S YOUTH AND FAMILIES

The BSA’s mission is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Scout Law.

The Cub Scouting program is open to boys and girls. By welcoming both girls and boys into the program, even more youth will have access to the character development and values-based leadership that Scouting promises.

Does Scouting Work?
Current and former Scouts have always felt that Scouting has made a difference in their lives, and now a study by Tufts University has found that Scouting does, in fact, have a measurable, positive impact in the character development of young people. Scouting was put to the test over the course of three years to measure the character attributes of both Scouts and non-Scouts.

The Study Revealed...
• Scouts are more likely to embrace positive social values than non-Scouts
• The more time kids spend in Scouting, the better the outcomes in character development
• Those who attend meetings regularly report higher outcomes virtually across the board when compared to Scouts with lower attendance
• Scouts who are more engaged in program report higher outcomes in nearly every category
YOUR CHILD IS A MEMBER OF A PACK WHICH

- Is made up of one or more gender and grade-specific dens; dens usually meet two to three times a month as a den
- Meets once a month at the pack meeting led by the Cubmaster - all Cub Scout families are expected to participate
- Some months the pack meetings may be a special activity, banquet or outdoor event... such as a family camp-out

YOUR PACK IS RUN BY THE PACK COMMITTEE

- Made up of den leaders, pack leaders, the pack trainer, and parents
- The committee meets once a month or more often if needed
- Led by the Committee Chairman
- The committee selects leadership, finds meeting places, performs record keeping, manages pack finances, orders badges, maintains pack equipment, helps train leaders, recognizes leaders, and plans activities
NEW SCOUT BASIC NEEDS

BOYS’ LIFE RECOMMENDED

Boys’ Life Magazine has been around almost as long as there have been Scouts. It is the only magazine especially designed for the Scout.

With features such as camping around the world and hiking, hobbies such as model cars and boat building, bicycling, fishing and nature, and articles on current Scouting, sporting and new events, Boys’ Life has just about everything to offer your child.

Make sure on your application you mark the Boys’ Life square and put your correct mailing address. In approximately 2 to 3 months, your Scout will receive their first issue delivered directly to their home. This is one step you can take to make sure your child will receive a full year of great Scouting.

HOW TO GET STARTED... BASIC NEEDS

Contrary to what your Scout may tell you, the first thing they will need to get started is not a uniform, but a book. The books in Cub Scouting are related to their age:

- Kindergartner will need a Lion Book
- 1st grader will need a Tiger Book
- 2nd grader will need a Wolf Book
- 3rd grader needs a Bear Book
- 4th and 5th graders will need a Webelos Book

These books contain the basics they will need for the coming year, especially the requirements for that rank.
Don't get the idea that uniforms aren't important, they are. After going through your Scout's book with them you'll probably have a good idea how serious a Cub Scout they will be. The uniform is an important part of the program and it represents an investment on your part. Our uniforms are of very high quality and, in most cases, will last for several years. So, be sure to buy one large enough for them to grow into.

If you can find an 'experienced' uniform in good shape, be sure to get it. Many of these 'experienced' uniforms will be just like new and will be all Scouts need at a very low cost. Most new Cub Scouts will have to buy a uniform and the Council Scout Shops are the official distributors of BSA uniforms and equipment.

Cub Scouts don't require much more than this, but in Scouts BSA they will need to acquire personal camping gear for their many outings. The Scouts are encouraged to wear their uniforms to school on the day of their Scouting meetings. The Cub Scouts especially enjoy this, and the uniform serves as school clothing one day a week.

POPCORN & WREATH SALE

Our annual popcorn sale teaches Scouts a valuable life lesson of earning their own way and helps pay for Scouting expenses. Please refer to the Popcorn Sale form provided in tonight’s packet for more information.
Scouting operates through volunteer leadership. Volunteer leaders are an example of Scouting’s principle of service to others. Naturally, parents are the primary source of leaders in the Scouting program. You volunteer not only to serve Scouting, but also to help your child and their friends, and to have the chance to be a positive influence on the youth in your community.

WHAT DO I GET IN RETURN?

Being a leader is fun, challenging, and rewarding. Leaders find that their experiences help them to become better parents. The following are some of the many dividends that will enrich your life as you dedicate your time, talents, and enthusiasm to Scouting.

- Fun and fellowship with other families, sharing your pride in the Scout’s accomplishment
- The privilege of helping to enrich and strengthen families
- A chance to help Scouts learn good citizenship and to help shape them into men and women who have strength of character and are sensitive to the needs of others
- The opportunity to help make a difference in the lives of boys and girls as they grow strong in mind and body
- A code to live by which will set a worthwhile example for both youth and adults
- The satisfaction of being a member of a worldwide movement, and pride in being publicly identified as a part of this organization – wearing the Scouting uniform is a visible means of showing you believe in and stand up for the ideals and objectives of the Boy Scouts of America

Position-Specific Training
Parents and adults who volunteer to help make a Scout unit function have access to online training courses to help them understand their Scouting position. Located at My.Scouting.org, all training for several volunteer roles in Scouting can be completed online. These courses can also be offered as face-to-face trainings.

Roundtable
Roundtable is a monthly leaders’ meeting for all adult volunteers in a Scouting district. These meetings provide meeting ideas and training to help with crafts, games, skits, songs, and lesson instruction for your den and pack meetings. Roundtables may be presented in a physical meeting location, virtually through meeting apps, or some combination of both. Leaders can build networks and socialize questions and ideas with other leaders at Roundtable.

Supplemental Training
Beyond your Position-Specific Training, the Boy Scouts of America offer supplemental training courses that range across outdoor skills, event safety, program planning, and leadership development. Funding Cub Scouts

Registration Fees Every member of the BSA pays an annual registration fee that is passed on fully to the national organization to support program standards and governing direction for basic consistency in rules and regulations.

Dues / Uniform Each Scouting unit provides a program specific to their members and will charge dues to help provide the program. Many units offer product sales, like popcorn, to help families raise funds as a means to avoid paying those fees directly. The uniform and handbook helps a Cub Scout feel like part of the program and can be purchased at the local Scout Shop.

Product Sales Many units participate in the council-operated popcorn, wreath and/or camp card sale to help families and the unit raise money to participate in Scouting. Participating in these sales help keep costs low for unit and council operations.

Friends of Scouting As a 501c3 organization, Three Harbors Council solicits tax-deductible financial contributions from its members and local businesses. Voluntary donations from all our families and local businesses help the council provide a quality program at a much lower cost to you than if the council did not receive these donations.

United Way Three Harbors Council is proud to receive funding from the United Way to help provide programming to all the youth in our programs. Contributions to the United Way makes a positive impact in Scouting, above and beyond any financial contributions you make directly to the Three Harbors Council.

WHAT DO I GET FOR MY MONEY?

- Best youth program in the world
- Shared experiences with your child
- Making a difference for your son or daughter and others with moral and ethical decision making skills
